

The pie charts show the information about the amount spent by people on different categories in a country in 1966 and 1996.

Write a report for the university lecturer describing the information. Write at least 150 words.

